Read the conversation and then answer the questions

– Hello. My name's Fred Smart, father of Jason Smart in Year 7. Am I speaking to the school secretary?
– Yes, that's right. How can I help you?
– My son was reading the school magazine when he noticed that the Art Club is going to Spain this year. I'm ringing to find out some more information about the trip.
– Is Jason a member of the Art Club, Mr Smart?
– Yes, he joined last week.
– Good, he must be a member of the club before he can go on the trip. Now, the trip is in the half term holiday of the Spring Term. There are only twenty places available so it's best to book early.

– How long is the trip and how will they get there?
– It's a five day trip and they'll sail from Portsmouth to Santander in northern Spain. He'll need a passport.
– That's OK. He got a new passport last year. Where will they stay and how much will it cost?
– They'll stay at a youth hostel in Bilbao and the cost is £250 per pupil.
– Does that cover everything?
– Yes, it covers travel, food, accommodation and entrance fees. You can pay a deposit of £50 now, but you must pay the full amount by the end of January.
– Well, I'll pop into the school office at four o'clock and pay the deposit. Thanks for your help.
– You're welcome.
