Level I. Forms 3-4

"Hello, and welcome to the school's television this morning! At 11 o'clock we will be going to London for a programme about good food called "Eat Well". Then at 12 o'clock pop singer Michael White talks about music and sings some of his great songs. He will sing 6 of his songs but will finish with his favourite "You are the sunshine". If you can't watch this programme today you can also see it on Monday morning at 11 o'clock. At 2 o'clock this afternoon Tony Smart shows you how to paint pictures. Then at 3 o'clock today there is a drama called "On the Farm" and it's about a farmer and his large number of animals. "On the Farm" stars Jason Davis and his favourite dog Bob. We shall end our programmes for today as usual with our 4 o'clock news programme which is 5 minutes long. Tomorrow is Friday 11th of April when there will be no programmes as it is a public holiday. There is a special new programme next Monday which is all about swimming. But now it's time for more great programmes."

Level II. Forms 5-6

"Hi, Robert. I heard you are getting an MX 60 laptop. I'd like one too."

"Yes, it's for doing some of my school work at home."

"Where will you buy it?"

"It costs too much on line, so I found a computer shop and they had an MX 60 for less money. I'll go and get mine there."

"How much is it?"

"It was 345 pounds but now it's only 295. I've already got 225."

"Who is going to lend you the extra money?"

"My mom said I could earn it by helping at home, but I need the money now. So my cousin's going to lend it to me. I can give him the money back later because dad's paying me to paint the kitchen."

"Oh, which colour laptop are you getting?"

"I want a white one but you can get it in blue or of course black."

"That's good."

"I'll also get a free gift, an MP3 player, a printer or a camera. A printer is more useful than an MP3 player, so I'm getting that."

"Good idea."

Level III. Forms 7-8

"Hello, we cannot come to the phone at the moment. Please, leave a message after the tone."

"Hi, Carol! It's me Barbara. I got your message and I've been trying to ring you, but your mobile phone is off. Perhaps you are asleep or something. I'm so pleased you are feeling better. Mum tells me you'll still be in quarantine for a week, so I can't come to visit. You must be really bored if you want to know what to study. Anyway, here you are. For French you should study all the irregular verbs and do exercises 1 to 5 on page 61, for Geography we've done European mountains, rivers and cities, pages 67 to 89. Finally, Maths. Exercises 1, 4 and 7 on page 43. Oh, I almost forgot. Miss Willis said that if you have problems with the Maths you could phone her from 5 to 6.30 any weekday evening except Thursday. Got all that? Phone me when you can. See you soon."

Level IV. Forms 9-11

"Hey, have you seen this ad?"

"Which one? The newspapers are full of ads. I never bother to read them."

"This one about a special holiday offer up to 300 pounds off brochure price."

"Oh, yes. Where? How long? How much?"

"Cyprus. You've always wanted to go there. The offer's for one or two weeks in July perfect for us. You hate going anywhere in August."

"Too true. Places are too crowded, and prices are sky high. But you've left out the most important detail. How much?"

"Be patient. I'm getting to it. Flights from Manchester, 5-star hotel, just two miles from a picturesque fishing harbour. It sounds so peaceful."

"And boring."

"No, listen. From the hotel there's direct access to a sandy beach and water sport facilities with qualified instructors for windsurfing, snorkeling and water skiing."

"That sounds better. Anything else?"

"Four restaurants, three tennis courts, a swimming pool, a fully equipped health and leisure centre with a gym and sauna, jacuzzi, massage and beauty room. Ah, there are three golf clubs within easy driving distance too. Every room has an en suite bathroom, a balcony, satellite TV, phone, minibar and air-conditioning."

"Yes, yes. All's very interesting, but you still haven't told me how much."

"For seven days 769 pounds."

"Per person? You've got to be joking. That's 1538 pounds for the two of us. I'd rather go camping in Spain and have a three-week holiday for the same money."

"Camping? No way!"
